

MARILYN MONROE

- Featuring an exceedingly rare used bank check, filled out and signed in the hand of Marilyn Monroe, dated Nov. 8, 1951. At this time Marilyn's bank had changed ownership, so she has crossed out the name "California Bank" and another (possibly her secretary) has filled in the information for Bank of America. Framed with her personally owned embossed stationary and envelope atop a 24x34" Milton H. Greene original photograph. The photograph has been embellished to give highlight to Monroe's red lips.
